I have received a request from the family of Dominic S. Russo to have a Memorial Square designated in his honor. The family wishes to have the Memorial Square pole be installed on the corner of Revere Street and Stowers Street.

Mr. Russo has lived in Revere for most of his life where he raised a family. Mr. Russo entered the military on March 4, 1941 and was discharged September 2, 1945 as a Sergeant (TEC 5) and served in the Solomon Islands, Philippines Islands and Guadalcanal. He received numerous campaign ribbons including the Bronze Star. It would be fitting to have a memorial square in honor of TEC 5 Dominic S. Russo.

A copy of his discharge is on file in this office.

Thank you for your consideration.

Ordered on a Motion of Councillor Novoselsky and Guinasso:
That the Mayor be requested to instruct the Department of Public Works sign department to install a memorial plaque at the corner of Revere Street and Stowers Street in honor of TEC 5 Dominic S. Russo.
